- activities that have already taken place or which will have commenced before a decision is due to be made on your application;
- where the activity is for charity fund-raising purposes, for participation in a competition, or for primarily profit-making purposes;
- activities that have already been assessed by the Arts Council. An exception will be made if the Council has specifically advised you to redirect your application to this award. Please bear in mind that such advice is not an indication of a successful outcome.

- cvs of all artistic personnel proposed;
- visual documentation of relevant previous performances.

If your proposal involves working with children or young people then you must provide a statement that describes your code of practice regarding child protection and welfare.

Criteria for the assessment of applications

All eligible applications are assessed under 3 criteria as follows:

- Artistic merit
- Meeting the objectives and priorities of the award
- Feasibility

You can see more information on each of these criteria in Section 3 – Assessment and Processing.

Section 2 – Making your application online

Online services website	All applications must be submitted using the Arts Council's online services website at https://onlineservices.artscouncil.ie
	Application forms must be submitted online via the Arts Council's online services website. Application forms submitted via email/post/fax will not be accepted.
	Supporting material must be submitted online apart from any specific exceptions listed elsewhere in these guidelines.
	Please note:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• You should become familiar with the online services website well in advance of the deadline and in advance of preparing an application. It is likely that there will be heavy traffic on the site on the final afternoon of the closing date. You should prepare and submit well in advance of the deadline.• Upload times can be much longer than download time. It may take you longer than you think to upload your support materials.• There is frequently a high volume of enquiries and phone calls on the day of any funding deadline so if you have a last minute query you may find it more difficult to get through to us.
	If you experience technical difficulties at any time while making an online application you can contact the Arts Council for help by emailing onlineservices@artscouncil.ie .
Read the Award Guidelines	Before making an application you must read the Award Guidelines in full.
Decide who the applicant is	Before making an application you must decide who the applicant is. The applicant is the person or organisation that will receive any award offered and who will be responsible for the terms and conditions of that award. Please be aware that any award offered will only be paid into a bank account held in the name of the applicant.
Registering for an online services account	To make an online application you will need an online services account. If you have made a funding application since April 2010 and are applying in the same name, you will have an online services account, which you access with your ARN and password. If you have forgotten your password, you can reset it via the link on the online services homepage by entering your ARN and the email address associated with the account. If you have not made an online application within the last 2 years OR you are applying on behalf of group/organisation which has not previously made an online application, you must register for an online services account. It may take up to 5 working days for your registration to be confirmed so it is very important that you register as early as possible.

If for exceptional reasons you are not able to use the internet or the Arts Council's online services web site or if you have special access requirements then the Arts Council will consider allowing you to submit your application form in hard copy. In such circumstances you must contact the Arts Council at least 2 weeks in advance of the deadline.

Requirements for using online services

Your computer and internet browser will need to meet the following requirements to use online services successfully:

PC:

Windows XP or higher with

If you cannot meet or do not understand any of these requirements, please contact us for advice as far as possible in advance of the deadline.

Making an online application

The process for applying on line is as follows:

1. If you have not already done so; register on line at <https://onlineservices.artscouncil.ie> and keep a note of your ARN (art reference number) and password.
2. Choose the appropriate funding type.
3. Follow the prompts and fill in the required fields.
4. Download the application form and save it to your computer.
5. Complete the application form and save it.
6. Return to the online site, log in and go to your home page.
7. Browse for and upload your application form.
8. Browse for and upload your supporting material.
9. Review your application and list of uploaded supporting material – you will not be able to add to or amend your application once submitted.
10. Hit the submit button (we will not receive your application until you click submit).

Using the application form

The application form is a Word document which you download from the online services website, complete offline on your own computer and then upload again prior to submitting your application.

The form contains special formatting which allows the online system to validate it on upload and ensures that you do not submit an incomplete form. To work with this formatting you must use either Microsoft Word or OpenOffice and follow the instruction at the beginning/end of the form.

We have a step-by-step guide to using the form with OpenOffice which can be downloaded here: <http://www.artscouncil.ie/en/FAQ/online-services.aspx#faq12>

The application form restricts the number of characters (letters) that can be used to answer each question. The character limit is stated on the application form next to each question. Please note that the limit is set in characters and not words (although an approximate word limit is given for guidance purposes) and that the character limit includes spaces.

See Section 5 of these Award Guidelines for help with preparing the content of your application form.

Preparing and submitting support material

Supporting material must be uploaded and submitted electronically through the Arts Council's online services website (apart from any exceptions listed elsewhere in these guidelines). You can upload a wide range of materials including images, videos and sound files.

NB Uploading material takes significantly longer than downloading. If you are uploading large files either to online services directly or to another URL (see 'Web links'), please upload your material well in advance of the deadline to ensure you can submit your application in time.

The total combined limit for all material uploaded to the online services site is 20MB.

The following file formats are accepted:

- image files - .jpg/.gif/.tiff/.png
- sound files - .wav/.mp3/.m4a
- video files - Quicktime/.avi/.mov/.mp4
- text files - .rtf/.doc/.docx/.txt
- Adobe Reader files - .pdf
- spreadsheets .xls/.xlsx

All files that are uploaded as support material must be appropriately named. The file name should make it clear what the file represents or contains. For example it should be clear from the file name whether the document is a CV, or a review of previous work.

When submitting supporting material:

- Upload each piece of supporting material separately, selecting the appropriate document type;
- Include the title of the work in the file name if submitting documentation of work;
- Follow any file naming conventions set out in Section 1

Web links

You may provide links to material hosted at specific websites rather than uploading the material directly to online services. Only material hosted at <http://www.youtube.com> or <http://www.4shared.com> will be assessed. Links to material hosted at other web sites will not be viewed. To submit your web link/s, copy the URL (link) for the specific piece of material e.g. video, music track that you wish to be viewed into a Word document or equivalent and upload as a 'Web links' supporting document.

If you do not wish material you upload to YouTube for the purposes of your application to be publicly viewable, you can flag your video as 'unlisted' in its settings. For more information see <http://www.artscouncil.ie/en/FAQ/online-services.aspx#faq18>.

See Section 1 of these Award Guidelines for a list of the support materials that you must upload with your application. See Section 5 for help with preparing the content of support materials.

Submitting on time	The online services system closes to applications on the deadline. You will not be able to upload material or submit your application once the deadline time/date passes. The Arts Council makes no exceptions to this rule.

Section 3 - Assessment and Processing

Overview The Arts Council considers all applications, makes decisions and communicates these to applicants in accordance with set procedures. The aim is to ensure that the system for making awards is fair and transparent.

The process All applications received are processed as follows:

- application acknowledged;
- application checked for eligibility;
- adviser(s) and/or staff make written assessment;
- adviser(s) and/or staff recommends as shortlisted or not shortlisted;
- peer panel considers and assesses shortlisted applications and makes recommendations;
- decision issued by Council;
- decisions communicated in writing.

Criteria for the assessment of applications Applications are assessed in a competitive context and with consideration of the available resources. All applications are assessed against the following criteria:

1. Artistic Merit
2. Meeting the objectives and priorities of the award
3. Feasibility

1. Artistic merit

An assessment on artistic merit would focus on the applicant and those involved in the project as well as the nature of the proposed arts activity and might include, amongst other things, consideration of:

- the quality of the idea and the proposed arts activity as outlined on the application form;
- the track record of the artistic personnel involved in the project evidenced through the CV(s) and other support material submitted;
- the potential of the of the applicant, the artist(s) and the idea evidenced through the application form and the support materials submitted;
- the artform/arts practice context in which the activity is proposed;
- the ambition, originality and competency demonstrated in the proposal.

2. Meeting the objectives and priorities of the award

An assessment under this criterion would focus on the benefit and strategic significance of the proposed activity in relation to the stated objectives and priorities of the award.

3. Feasibility

An assessment on feasibility would consider the extent to which the applicant demonstrates capacity to deliver the proposed activity. This might include but not be limited to consideration of -

- the personnel involved in managing, administering, delivering the project;
- the extent to which the applicant demonstrates the provision of equitable conditions and remuneration for participating artists;
- the involvement of project partners;
- the proposed budget;
- other sources of income;
- the availability of and access to other resources;
- the proposed timetable or schedule.

Peer panels	The purpose of peer panel meetings is to allow for a diversity of expert views to inform the decision-making process. Peer panels normally comprise at least two external adjudicators with relevant artform and/or arts practice expertise. An Arts Council staff member or adviser also sits on the panel in a non-voting capacity. Peer panels are chaired by a non-voting Arts Council member. Panellists receive relevant information on each shortlisted application in advance and have full access to all submitted material on the day of the assessment.
Timeframe	The Arts Council endeavours to assess applications as quickly as possible, but the volume of applications and the rigorous assessment process mean that it takes at least 12 weeks from closing date to decision.
What happens if you receive an award?	A letter of offer will be sent to you detailing the amount of funding, and the terms and conditions of the award. You will also be informed of the process by which your award should be drawn down.
What happens if you do not receive an award?	You will be informed in writing if your application is not successful. Unfortunately, eligibility and compliance with application procedures alone do not guarantee receipt of an award. Because of the large volume of applications, demand for funding always exceeds the available resources. If your application is not successful you can request feedback from Arts Council staff.
Appeals and complaints	If you feel that the Arts Council's procedures have not been followed, check the Appeals and Complaints Procedure, or contact the Arts Council for a copy of the Appeals and Complaints information sheet.
Am I able to re-apply?	If your application has been assessed and you did not receive an award then you are not eligible to reapply for the same activity to any other Arts Council award. If the Arts Council feels that the proposed activity would have been more suited to a different award programme an exception may be made. In such circumstance you will be informed in writing.

Section 5 – Help with your application

Read the Award Guidelines Before making an application you must read the Award Guidelines in full.

Help with completing your application form

These help notes should be read in conjunction with the application form. The numbered sections below relate to the numbered sections on the application form.

The application form asks you to outline what it is you want to do, how much it will cost and how much funding you require. It also asks you to explain how you feel that your proposal meets the assessment criteria for the award and provides space for you to outline key dates or activities and to list any other individuals or organisations involved in your proposal.

Section 1 – The Award

- 1.1 At section 1.1 of the application form you are asked to tick a box to confirm that you have read the Award Guidelines.
- 1.2 Section 1.2 of the application form asks you to identify the artforms /arts practices that are relevant to your application. In many cases it is likely that only one box will need to be ticked, however, in some cases there may be more than one. You should only select an artform/arts practice if it represents a significant element of the activities described in your application. Selecting more than 1 box will not in itself make your application any more or less of a priority. Do not tick more than 3 boxes.
- 1.3 Section 1.3 of the application form is only relevant to applicants applying to certain awards as identified on the form. If the award you are applying for is divided into different strands then you must identify here which strand you are applying for. You can only apply for one strand. See Section 1 of the Award Guidelines for a description of each strand. If you are not applying
- 1.4 Section 1.4 of the application form asks you to briefly describe who you are and to outline your most recent artistic achievements. This question is relevant to applicants applying either as individuals or organisations. Newly formed organisations with little or no track record may choose to answer this question by focusing on the experience of individual members of the organisation. If you are applying as an individual on behalf of a wider group then tell us about yourself as well as the group.

Section 2 – Proposal

- 2.1 At section 2.1 of the application form you are asked if you have a title for your proposal. This might be the title of the event, the production, the work etc. If you do not have a title then you can leave this section blank.
- 2.2 At section 2.2 of the application form you are asked to provide 3 short points outlining your proposal.
- 2.3 At section 2.3 of the application form you are asked to provide a full description of your proposal. This will help those involved in assessing your application to understand the full scope of your proposal.

What you include in your description will depend on the nature of the proposed activities. It might include but not necessarily be limited to:

- o a practical explanation of the project, i.e. what will happen, when it will happen, how it will happen, who will be involved;
- o the artistic goals and ambitions;
- o the envisioned benefits, i.e. who will benefit and how;
- o the context in which the proposal is being made;
- o a schedule of the key steps of the project;
- o information on key partners/collaborators and their roles;
- o any additional and relevant administrative details;
- o any additional and relevant technical details;
- o any additional and relevant financial details.

2.4 At section 2.4 of the application form you are asked to explain how you feel your proposal meets the assessment criteria for the award to which you are applying. To understand the assessment criteria for the award you should read carefully the Award Guidelines and in particular Section 1: About the Award and Section 3: Assessment and Processing.

2.5 At section 2.5 of the application form you are asked to identify any other artists, individuals, groups or organisations that are involved in your proposal. You should only identify those that play a significant part in your proposal. This might include the venue hosting your proposed activity, the main artists involved, key partners, key administrative personnel etc. The form allows you to briefly describe the way in which each of these parties will be involved in the proposed project.

2.6 At section 2.6 of the application form you are asked to identify key activities, dates or locations that are relevant to your proposal. This might include identifying the key planning stages or listing the dates of a launch, an event or a performance etc.

Section 3 – Budget

3.1 Section 3.1 of the application form asks you to identify the expenditure relating to your proposal. You should consult the Award Guidelines particularly Section 1. About the Award to see what expenditure is eligible within the award. A more detailed budget can be submitted in support of your application but you should still fill in this section of the form (please note that for some awards it is an essential requirement to submit a detailed budget with your supporting documentation).

3.2 Section 3.2 of the application form asks you to identify any income relating to your proposal (excluding the income you hope to secure from the Arts Council). If you have income from other sources that is specifically being put towards the cost of the activities described in your project proposal then you should identify that income here. You need only include other income if it is relevant and appropriate to your proposal. This might include for example box office projections, other funders, sponsorship etc. You can include in-kind support here, however, you must make sure that you also reflect the value of that in-kind support in the expenditure section so that your budget balances.

3.3 Section 3.3 of the application form asks you to state how much you are seeking from the Arts Council. The amount requested should be equal to the total expenditure minus any income that you have declared as counting towards the cost of the proposal. It is very important that these figures match. If there is a discrepancy in the figures the Arts Council will not be in a position to properly assess your application. It is very important that you clearly state how much you are seeking from the Arts Council. The Arts Council is not able to grant money where an amount has not been requested. You cannot ask for more money than you need i.e. more than the expenditure that you have identified for the proposal. You should also bear in mind the maximum level of grant that is available for the award.

Help with your supporting material

You must submit supporting material with your application. Supporting material is a vital part of your application. Clear, concise and relevant supporting material will help assessors to understand your proposal.

If you do not submit the required supporting materials the Arts Council will not be able to make an assessment of your application.

See Section 1 of these award guidelines under the heading 'Essential supporting material' for the list of supporting materials that you must submit with your application.

See Section 2 of these award guidelines under the heading 'Preparing and submitting support material' for technical information on how to provide your support material.

CV's are an essential requirement for all applications. Full CV(s) should be provided rather than short biographies. Each CV should identify relevant work or skills, e.g. information about expertise in a particular area of work, or information about exhibitions, performances or recordings. Each CV should be no more than three A4 pages in length.

If you are submitting music or sound based material please identify names of performers, and instrumentation where appropriate.

If you are submitting visual stills please ensure that images are clearly labelled and there is relevant contextual information. This might include details of the title and date of works, media and dimensions, where work was presented etc.

If you are submitting moving image work please provide relevant contextual information. This might include details of the piece, date, thematic/general comments, where it was presented, names of performers, how the work was financed (e.g. award, self-financed). Long pieces should be edited; no more than 3 extracts should be submitted.

General advice

Common mistakes to avoid when submitting materials documenting arts practice:

- no indication of the relevance of materials to your application;
- poor labelling or description of works – this can lead to confusion over dimensions, media and context;
- no examples of your own work;
- too much irrelevant information (e.g. too many reviews). Be selective with what you submit. It is better to submit one high-quality example than a large amount of lesser-quality, irrelevant material;
- not enough information. Assessors will have no basis on which to make a recommendation;
- examples of old work. Assessors are interested in your recent or current work.

Other general advice to consider when making an application:

- plan your application well in advance;
- read the Award Guidelines thoroughly before you begin making an application;
- remember that several people will be involved in making a decision about your application – so make your application clear, concise and unambiguous;
- do not assume that the assessors will know you or your work. Treat each application as if it were your first;
- have a clear and realistic idea of what you want and how much your proposal costs;
- be selective with supporting material and ensure you include those items that are essential;
- have someone else look over your application before you submit it.
