

Artist Creative Associate FAQ's

How do I know if I am eligible to apply for the role of Creative Associate?

Artists/Creative Practitioners: All freelance artists and creative practitioners with the relevant experience can apply as individuals.

Organisations: Arts and cultural organisations can nominate an individual to deliver associate services on behalf of the organisation as long as both the organisation and the named individual have the relevant experience.

Which application form should I fill out? Artists and creative practitioners and organisations who are nominating an individual should apply using the Artist Creative Associate Application Form.

What is a pre-selection meeting? At the pre-selection meeting you will meet with a panel who will ask you questions about your interest and suitability for the role of Creative Associate. This will be based on your knowledge, experience and skills in the areas of arts, creativity and education.

When and where will selection meetings take place? Selection meetings are anticipated to take place in April 2018 at four locations around Ireland.

How will I be inducted for the role? Creative Associates will receive two days induction in Dublin in September 2018. All successful Creative Associates will need to be fully available to attend this induction. Creative Associates will be paid for induction days.

Where will I work? It is anticipated that Creative Associates will be assigned to schools in regions where they live or work closest to. A full list of regions is available in the Creative Associate Information Booklet. When you apply, you must indicate the regions in which you are available to work.

What is a creative practice? Creative practice could include, but is not limited to: visual arts, traditional arts, street arts and spectacle, play, music, opera, film, media arts, literature and creative writing, drama and theatre, design, dance, craft, comedy and improvisation, coding and digital arts, circus arts, architecture.

Where can I get more information if my question was not answered in the Info Booklet or FAQs? Any further queries should be emailed to creativeschools@artscouncil.ie before 4pm on Monday 26th February, 2018.
