1. Background

The Arts Council is the government agency for developing the arts in Ireland. We work in partnership with artists, arts organisations, public policy makers and others to build a central place for the arts in Irish life. The Arts Council is partnering with the Department of Education and the Department of Tourism, Culture, Arts, Gaeltacht, Sport and Media to develop the Creative Schools programme.

The post of Creative Schools Manager is open to qualified teachers who hold a recognised post in a primary school/post primary school. S/he may be contracted on a secondment basis to the Arts Council. The Creative Schools Manager will report to the Creative Schools Programme Director and will form part of the Creative Schools Team.

Scoileanna Ildánacha/Creative Schools is a flagship initiative of the Creative Ireland Programme to enable the creative potential of every child. Creative Schools is led by the Arts Council in partnership with the Department of Education and the Department of Tourism, Culture, Arts, Gaeltacht, Sport and Media.

The initiative is also informed by the Arts Council's ten-year strategy (2016–25) Making Great Art Work: Leading the Development of the Arts in Ireland (see here: <http://www.artscouncil.ie/arts-council-strategy/>).

The Creative Schools initiative supports schools/centres to put the arts and creativity at the heart of children's and young people's lives. This initiative provides opportunities for children and young people to build their artistic and creative skills; to communicate, collaborate, stimulate their imaginations, be inventive, and to harness their curiosity. It will empower children and young people to develop, implement and evaluate arts and creative activity throughout their schools/centres and stimulate additional ways of working that reinforce the impact of creativity on children and young people's learning, development and well-being.

The Creative Schools Manager will be engaged on a full-time basis (See Annual Leave) and will contribute to the development and delivery of the Creative Schools. This will include; as relevant and based on the candidate skills set, policy responsibility for early years, primary, post primary and post programme completion. This includes identification and delivery of priorities and targets; and engaging in research. S/he will be responsible for leading and managing a team of professional Creative Associates, drawn from both the arts and the education community who will work directly with schools and other relevant education.

2. Role Profile

Key responsibilities of the Creative School Manager will be to:

- Ensure the effective development, implementation and monitoring of Creative Schools in schools and other relevant education settings
- Develop, lead out and deliver on training for Creative Associates and schools, including developing any relevant resources, materials and guidelines
- Developing, co-ordinating and delivering Creative Schools training and networking
- Develop and maintain practical systems to facilitate the delivery of high quality support to participating schools and early childhood other relevant settings
- Carry out research and analysis to monitor and evaluate the programme as it develops
- Lead and manage a team of Creative Associates ensuring their key role in delivering the Creative Schools initiative is performed effectively and delivers the required outcomes.
- Follow procurement and recruitment processes for the selection and engagement of Creative Associates

- Promote Creative Schools through the organisation and implementation of events to support the initiative
- Oversee the quality assurance framework of the initiative
- Visit schools to observe best practice, identify innovative and emerging practice
- Gather examples of good practice
- Build relationships with strategic partners involved in education and arts/creative/cultural sectors at a national level, ensuring relationships will inform programme systems for project development and management.
- Contribute to the development, implementation and monitoring of National Celebration Events
- Contribute to the development of communications strategy for Creative Schools

In carrying out his/her work, the Creative Schools Manager will:

- Liaise and work with artists, arts organisations, cultural institutions and arts practitioners who are working at local, regional and national levels
- Keep abreast of and make links with arts/creative learning initiatives and examples of best practice at a regional, national and international level
- Remain up to date on curricular developments
- Identify opportunities that might increase the scope, quality and reach of Creative Schools
- Contribute to the understanding of diversity and its implications for the creative and educational sector and ensure that this understanding informs the Creative Schools Initiative
- Prepare, monitor and report on programme budgets
- Develop documentation for the assessment, delivery and reporting of Creative Schools processes
- Organise and maintain effective communication both internally and externally
- Undertake administrative tasks to ensure the efficient delivery of the project across participating regions.

The responsibilities of the Creative Schools Manager may vary in accordance with emerging needs and priorities.
