

Board Director's Advert

RUA RED, South Dublin's dynamic, accessible and vibrant home for the arts, is seeking a new board director with skills and experience in the areas of arts development and management to join its existing board team. You will be committed to the principles of good governance and will be enthusiastic about the key aims of the company. You will be able to commit to attending quarterly board meetings as well as board training and development sessions. You will also be expected to attend events at RUA RED and to represent the company at external functions.

Closing date for applications is Friday 14 October 2011.

For an application pack and further information, please email info@ruared.ie

Rua Red
South Dublin Arts Centre